

Please keep media outlets regulated and separate. The FCC provides an important set of checks and balance, and deregulating that balance would serverely limit access to nonbiased, diverse points of view.